

Interrogating the gender binary: Foundational difference or hegemonic matrix?

FEBRUARY 2nd and 3rd 2017

Aula XI (Aula Olivetti) -VILLA MIRAFIORI

Sponsored by
Institute of State and Law, Czech
Academy of Sciences, Centre for Law
and Public Affairs
Národní 18, 116 00 Praha 1
Nové Město (Czech Republic)

Hosted by
Sapienza – Università di
Roma
Dipartimento di Filosofia
Via Carlo Fea 2,
00161 Rome (Italy)

February 2nd, 15.00-18.30 February 3rd, 9.30-13.00

Whatever Happened to the Woman of the Gender Binary? Some reflections on feminism and institutions
Maria Drakopoulou (University of Kent)

The politicization of sexuality
Ingrid Salvatore (Università degli Studi di Salerno)

Can Human Rights Exist Without Gender? LGBTI Issues and the Council of Europe
Francesca Romana Ammataro (University of Roehampton)

Subjectivity, Gender and Agency
Petr Agha (Institute of State and Law, Czech Academy of Sciences)

*How the Inheritance System Thinks? Queering
Kinship, Gender and Care in the Legal Sphere* Antu Sorainen (Academy of Finland and University of Helsinki)

Linguistic Traps. Identity and Differences through Institutions

Carlotta Cossutta (Università del Piemonte Orientale)

Appropriateness and appropriation: make neutrality great again

Valeria Venditti (Sapienza – Università di Roma and University of Glasgow)

Newtnering: A postcritical reading of the binary
Mariano Croce (Sapienza – Università di Roma)

Attendance to the workshop is free.