

Philosophical Perspectives on Aging: Vulnerability and Imperfection

Online seminar May 17-18, 2021

La Sapienza, Università di Roma
Accademia di Danimarca (Danish Institute in Rome)
Values, Welfare and Health,
Department for the Study of Culture,
University of Southern Denmark

<https://syddanskuni.zoom.us/j/62917273094>

Monday, May 17

(All times shown as Central European Summer Time)

- 10.45-11.00 Welcome and Introduction (Piergiorgio Donatelli & Søren Harnow Klausen)
11.00-11.45 Karen Lancaster (Univ. of Nottingham): Universal and Variable Dignity
12.00-12.45 Marjolein Oele (Univ. of San Francisco): A Phenomenology of Aging: Aging-Related Illness, Material-Social Constellations, and Slow Death
12.45-13.30 Break
13.30-14.15 Alex Gillham (St. Bonaventure Univ.): An Epicurean Philosophy of Aging (pre-recorded)
14.30-15.15 Abel B. Franco (California State Univ.): Aging and the Tragic Burden of Memory: A Source of Joy?
15.30-16.15 Christopher Fruge (Rutgers): Permanent Value
16.30-17.15 Camille Irvine (Guelph): Relational End-of-Life Care Practices and the Covid-19 Restrictions

Tuesday, May 18

(All times shown as Central European Summer Time)

- 10.00-10.45 Maja Berseneva (Freie Univ. Berlin): On Aging Faces
11.00-11.45 Roshni Babu (Independent): Loss of Virility and Disembodiment of Memory: Philosophy of Aging in Indian Modernity
12.00-13.30 Break
13.30-14.15 Eric Wilkinson (McGill): Stoicism and Growing Old
14.30-15.15 MaryKate Gaurke (Georgetown): Being-in-the-World with Dementia
15.30-16.15 Peter Koch (Villanova): Vulnerability, Frailty and a Capabilities-Based Approach to Well-Being